Today I want to tell you a bit more about something I have recently become involved with: The Living Oasis Leeds Project. This has been set up to establish a Christian coffee shop, outreach centre and book shop at 77 Albion Street, in the heart of the Leeds central shopping district, and is making progress with its plans for opening later in the year. As part of this there will be a fundraising dinner on Friday 6th May at the Ramada Leeds Parkway Hotel, with guest speaker G P Taylor (author of "Shadowmancer", "Doppelganger Chronicles" and numerous other books for children and adults).

As a member of the local Steering Group, I have been asked, along with the others, to help with distributing invitations to what will be a very special and memorable evening. I've never attended a fundraising dinner myself, so I'm looking forward to a first experience! As I understand it, the event and dinner will be free of charge and no one will be under any obligation to contribute. Nevertheless, the challenge of this amazing project will be presented. There will be the opportunity to make a donation or alternatively to invest in what promises to be a profitable business. Well, as I say, that's my rather simple understanding of the thing.

I do believe this is a really exciting project, and you may hear of me making this kind of statement in a variety of different contexts. If anyone would like to go along to the event, just let me know and I'll see if we can squeeze you in.

Take care,

Brian

Your Prayers

The BU Prayer Guide points us to the North Western Baptist Association: "A number of NWBA churches are exploring and participating in 'A World of Difference' - a mission initiative to help churches engage with their local neighbours over a coffee, while sharing good news stories of how BMS and Home Mission are making 'a world of difference'. Please pray for these churches as they develop this with support from NWBA and BMS".

BMS World Mission requests prayer for Christian work in Kosovo and Croatia. The YBA Prayer Calendar today features Dewsbury Baptist Church and Dewsbury Independent Methodist Church (Providence) – so people all across Yorkshire may well be praying for us.
