Suddenly, as I look at my diary, the Summer seems to stretch out before us, full of opportunity and, of course, long sunny days. I've often thought of this as a time when I will be able to catch up, and do all kinds of things that I've thought of, but never completed. Yet experience tells me that in just a few weeks time, when the month of August is drawing to a close, I'll be wondering again where it has all gone. Time is like that, it so easily slips by without us noticing. If things are important, we say that we need to take time for them, or even make time in order to achieve what we would like to happen. On looking back at my record of previous years, we have in fact done some interesting and significant things during the Summer months. I hope that we'll be able to say the same again when we look back on 2011. So if you have any ideas about things that would be worth planning during the coming weeks, why not let me know. We may not be able to do everything suggested, but I can promise you a good hearing. Meanwhile, of course, the regular worship services will carry on week by week, with the aim of presenting the familiar, age-old message of the gospel with a freshness and variety that links it in to our daily experience. This is something of what I understand by the statement that God's mercies are "new every morning" (Lamentations 3:23)

Take care,

Brian

News Around The Pews

Our congratulations and best wishes to Esther for her graduation with a First MSc. on Thursday. We trust that it will be a very significant and memorable occasion for all the family. She will spend the next three years working on her PhD.

All involved with CARE Dewsbury have been shocked and saddened to hear of the sudden death last Sunday of Darren Thornton (Daz). Brian will take part in leading his funeral service on Tuesday at 10.30 am in Dewsbury Crematorium. Daz has attended services and Bible studies occasionally at DBC and also at the Gospel Church. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. At the Church Meeting on Thursday, we heard the news that Annie Bedford passed away last weekend. Annie was for a long time a member of the church before moving to the south coast. Her funeral will be on July 11th at Beulah Baptist Church, Bexhill-on-Sea. It was also her wish that a memorial service should be held here in Dewsbury. Details will be announced later.
