Door Stewards Madge and Eric

We've had a bit of a break. For the first time in recent years there was no notice sheet for two whole weeks over Christmas and New Year. It was a good opportunity for our small team to have a rest from the usual routine and, for me, it was certainly a chance to think about the parts I usually contribute. It's not going to lead to any major changes, but I hope a bit of new insight will freshen things up a bit.

Let me take this opportunity to say a big thank you to everyone involved. By Thursday each week the raw material, from various sources, is passed to Adam who edits it into the format you know, assisted by Janet as proofreader. Photocopying is then done by David and Chris, all in time for Sunday morning. Then copies are posted by Liz and Madge to people who have not been at the service and others who live further away but like to remain in touch. So quite a lot of people play a part and we're grateful to every one of them.

Last Sunday I decided to ask for some feedback about the suggested Bible readings. Thank you to all those who responded. The impression I get is that many people do appreciate the readings and prefer the consecutive approach rather than the ones that jump around all over the place. So I'm planning to carry on with them, starting this week in Matthew's Gospel, just at the end of the Nativity section. The feedback has been most helpful and I'm always ready to receive more.

Take care,

Brian

News Around the Pews

Congratulations to Rachel Spilsbury, who has passed her grade 7 piano exam.

Kath Townend is due to make a trip to the Royal Hallamshire Hospital, to have her knee reconstructed.

The Epiphany Party was attended on Friday by a warm friendly gathering. A big thank you to all who made the evening a most enjoyable one. Lots of games were played and the evening rounded off with a tasty faith supper. Let's do it again next year.

For Your Prayers

The BU Prayer Guide requests prayer for Mainstream, which is a Word and Spirit network linking, encouraging and resourcing leaders and churches within and beyond the Baptist denomination to be passionate about God, real in relationships and committed and effective in mission. Pray that God's Spirit will refresh and inspire all who attend the annual Mainstream conference this week, strengthening them for their ministry.

BMS World Mission asks us to pray for mission teams of various kinds

And please pray for the new YBA strategy as it is rolled out in the coming weeks.
