WHAT THE HECK IS CROSSOVER JAZZ ROCK POP?

Well it's a little bit of everything you're sure to like I suppose. As a songwriter I have taken it as a norm to experiment in many different styles from reggae to samba, through rock to baroque.

I hadn't even considered categorising my sub-genres or putting everything into one box until releasing my music via the internet to a 21st century cyber audience who require such boundaries - so you may hear some blues or some folk or some jazz as you explore the catalog, but if you still don't find what you're looking for - please call again - and if you enjoy the music we make, then you can find four unique and original CDs exclusively available via Jezaland

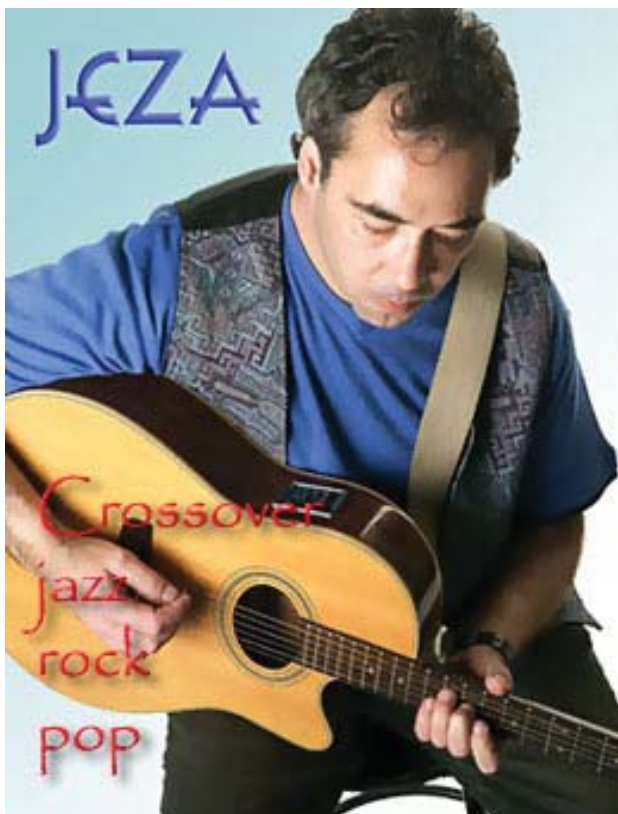

WHO THE HECK IS JEZA?

Jeza lives in London UK between travels, where his musical odyssey began in the early 1970s as a brother act acoustic duo Phantasy Circus. He has been writing and performing throughout four decades, countless gigs, clubs, UK music festivals and strongly supporting the local live acoustic network. More recently committing much of the back catalog of songs to CD. Working from home studios and enlisting the finest cherry-picked musicians - often themselves recording in remote locations around the globe including UK, USA, Guatemala, Italy & Israel

NOW AVAILABLE ON-LINE

Following the widely acclaimed 1999 debut CD release 'jeza wine'd up', the brand new, more introspective follow up collection, 'Man In The Mirror' title track penned in 1975 - the product of two years intensive work.

Collaborating Globally via the internet with musicians both at home and as far afield as Guatemala, USA, Italy, Israel and UK, using CoolEditPro software on PC.
