Directions/Travelling

If you are driving:

Coming from the North of Perthshire, simply get onto the A90 and head for Dundee. Still on the A90, follow signs for Perth and approx. 12 miles from Dundee you will see a turn off for Errol/Rait. Take this exit and go over the flyover and turn off signposted to Rait. When you reach a crossroads take a right turn (a small sign says Fingask) and continue on this for approx. 600 yards and you will see the entrance for Fingask Castle on your left (do NOT go up there). But 20 or so yards later on the small brow you will see the turning on your left with a sign for Over Fingask Farm. Take this turning and we are approx. 1 mile up into the hills. The only Farmhouse towards the top of the hill.

Coming from the South, then there are two main ways from England or the South of Scotland.

- 1) If you are on the East coast, then follow the A1 up to Edinburgh and take the ring-road/by-pass heading for the Forth Road Bridge. Then take the M90/A90 towards Perth (do not turn off to Perth), continue on the A90 towards Dundee and approx. 12 miles from Perth you will see a turn off for Errol/Rait. Take this exit and turn off signposted to Rait. When you reach a crossroads take a right turn (a small sign says Fingask) and continue on this for approx. 600 yards and you will see the entrance for Fingask Castle on your left (do NOT go up there). But 20 or so yards later on the small brow you will see the turning on your left with a sign for Over Fingask Farm. Take this turning and we are approx. 1 mile up into the hills. The only Farmhouse towards the top of the hill.
- 2) If you are coming up the Western side, then take the M6 to Carlisle and into Scotland. This then becomes the M74 and takes you towards Glasgow. Once you have reached Glasgow, simply follow signs for Stirling, and once passed Stirling, follow signs towards Perth. This will be the M90/A90, so continue on the A90 towards Dundee and approx. 12 miles from Perth you will see a turn off for Errol/Rait. Take this exit and turn off signposted to Rait. When you reach a crossroads take a right turn (a small sign says Fingask) and continue on this for approx. 600 yards and you will see the entrance for Fingask Castle on your left (do NOT go up there). But 20 or so yards later on the small brow you will see the turning on your left with a sign for Over Fingask Farm. Take this turning and we are approx. 1 mile up into the hills. The only Farmhouse towards the top of the hill.
