

Socius Sports are running week long (Monday to Friday) Netball camps during the summer holidays in various locations around the country. There will be three in the west Midlands at the following venues.

Birmingham - Hillcrest School
30th July to 3rd August 2007
Stratford Upon Avon - Stratford Upon Avon High School
6th to 10th August 2007
Coventry - Alan Higgs Centre
13th to 17th August 2007

As a company we bring Netball, Rugby Union and Cricket coaches from New Zealand, Australia and South Africa that are able to teach new and different coaching drills and techniques.

Course details in brief:

- The camps run Monday to Friday 9.15 to 3.00
- The camp would be open to all on a first come first serve basis with a maximum of 60 places
- We will be seeing girls aged from 10 to 16.
- The course cost £96.00 for the week
- All attendees receive a netball and sports bottle

We have 9 netball coaches of varying background coming to the UK:

Judy Weston. Judy was our head Netball Coach in 2006, a level 3 coach from New Zealand who has enjoyed success as coach of the Auckland-Waitakere National Provincial Championship team for 5 years. Prior to coming back to the UK she is working as the High Performance Manager for the newly created Auckland-Waitakere High Performance Academy, delivering and managing elite player programmes.

David Weston. Dave has an extensive netball background with over 20 years of netball coaching experience. He is also a qualified umpire and has been involved with coaching both Age Group and Premier club teams in Southland, North Harbour and Auckland. He also teams up as an Assistant coach to Judy, creating a very strong and dynamic team.

Ari Carroll one of our younger coaches who is a Physiotherapist by occupation from New Zealand. She is currently playing for the first team for Carmel Marist at Premier One Grade in Auckland. She had a great summer in 2006 working well with the younger children

Ali Dawson comes to us with extensive playing and coaching experience and has spent the last two years working alongside Liz Ellis, Australian Netball Captain, at her highly successful clinics in Australia

Sue Croskery a level 2 coach Currently coaching the Campion College Secondary School Team under guidance of mentor - Leigh Gibbs (Silver Ferns Assistant Coach - New Zealand's national side) and Coachforce assessor.

Jodi Ormsby a level 2 coach who has been working with Judy Weston as Manager of the Auckland Waitakere's. The Auckland Waitakere's were three times semi-finalists in the National Provincial Championships (2003 to 2005) and winners of the Auckland Premier Competition in 2004 and 2005.

Megan Hutton is a high profile player in New Zealand who is currently playing for the Southern Sting Netball Team. Her team reached the National Bank Cup finals against Waikato-Bay in 2006.

Dan Ryan a level 2 coach who has enjoyed international success as an elite athlete having represented Australia in men's netball for the past 6 years and is part of the Australian men's netball team. Five times Australian Male Netballer of the year with extensive experience in captaining State and National teams.

Shelley Norris former member of the New Zealand under 21 squad and now plays for Canterbury Flames Netball team. Her shooting skills, presence and knowledge of the game will ensure Shelley is an asset to our coaching team.
