

Crossword No IPH009 by Ian P. Hudson

1		2		3		4		5		6		7		8
9											10
11
	12							13
14
15								16
														17
18
19				20
21								22

Across

- 1 Miss Rowling is around one spot for prolific Moravian tunesmith. (7)
- 5 Sea inspired impressionist in transit between Delaware and Seychelles. (7)
- 9 High wind during hours of darkness for songster. (11)
- 10 Stick thin mod with raspy voice. (3)
- 11 Let high, foul loft be abandoned after this flittermouse trajectory? (6,3,2,4)
- 12 French reign of 1793. (6)
- 13 Evil ape goes bananas over calf meat en croute. (4,3)
- 15 Colossal — and disastrous (7)
- 16 Gorton has gone west to find tropical American insectivore. (6)
- 18 Haymaking? Her? Non! She'd much rather be at equestrian event in south east French river region! (8,2,5)
- 19 Grass bristle of which, from sunrise, five hundred blew away. (3)
- 20 Sayer, singer & songwriter urged with these words to go on the rampage. (4,3,4)
- 21 Dawn peal in leafy French street named after telephone inventor? (3,4)
- 22 Leave in credit regarding slaughterer's implement (7)

Down

- 1 A poor sort of fun in starting jealousy over 1A heroine! (6)
- 2 Marking on music to be played in a careless manner! (15)
- 3 Novel view of baseball player in cereal crop field. (7,2,3,3)
- 4 Knock for grill on confused errand for famous junk food addict. (4,2,4'1'4)
- 5 Prepare to write scathingly to someone about sulphuric acid? (5,1,9,6)
- 6 Summary report on tasty ale? (4,11)
- 7 Igor's peeve: Kirov performed worse for him than for this man? Not true! (6,9)
- 8 Britt (not John) perhaps, Mary Schneider, or (sometimes) Ronnie Ronalde ... (8)
- 14 The Top Gear driver meets WW1 spy in movie about religious obsession. (8)
- 17 See 5.