

TWO LEFT FEET

Let your feet do the talking!

12 November 2007

You are invited to enjoy yourself and possibly meet someone too!

Two Left Feet Dating is a singles dance night. Learn to dance and meet someone too. Fear not all those shy dancers, you will not be alone. All the classes are aimed at beginners and are run by professional but very friendly and approachable instructors.

Although you may surprise yourself at just how easy some of the moves are to learn, the emphasis is always on fun, having a great time and meeting new friends.
